

October 31, 2017

The Page County Board of Supervisors met in session on this 31st day of October 2017, with Jon Herzberg, Chuck Morris, and Alan Armstrong present. On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Morris, the board approved the agenda. Present from the public were John Van Nostrand and Charly Stevens.

King met with the board. Blades are out and three trucks are hauling rocks. Black Earth is working on the second to the last pipe. The next pipe they will be working on is on M Avenue. There is a motor grader in the shop for service, and all snow plows have had winter prep completed. The lowboy equipment trailer is having issues. The current phase at the Shambaugh Bridge should be completed this week, and the next phase will start in the spring. Brummett Bridge is closed to traffic. Base stabilization is finished on T Ave and 265th. They are starting to lay rock on Page Center Road, and it is closed to thru traffic. The Weir project west of Blanchard is still overwhelmed with water. King gave an update on the Nishnabotna Watershed meeting that he attended last week. King also attended a local road safety workshop. Randy Davison, Judy Ridnour and King will attend the Service Bureau training session in Atlantic on Thursday. Morris discussed whether it would be beneficial to look into an assistant engineer. JD appreciates the thought for additional help. Harold Murren and Larry Shum joined the meeting.

The board interviewed Harold Murren for the Conservation Board. Murren filled the board in on his work experience and how he would handle negative situations that arise. Murren stated he would be there to listen to the public and help assist the current staff.

The board interviewed Larry Shum for the Conservation Board. Shum has attended conservation meetings in the past and has some concerns with the safety at the gun range. Lyle Palmer joined the meeting. Shum would like to see more camping availability. He feels that everybody has the ability to get along. Kevin Christensen joined the meeting.

The Board interviewed Kevin Christensen for the Conservation Board. Christensen filled the board in on his interest of being on the Conservation Board. Christensen stated he feels that everyone should be able to get along even when two sides are involved. Christensen feels that all of our parks are very well kept and family friendly. Angie Hakes joined the meeting.

Morris discussed the new wellness policy. On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Morris the board moved to table the new wellness policy until more research can be done and information can be distributed to the department heads and staff.

On a motion by Morris, seconded by Armstrong, the board unanimously approved the tax suspension list pending all the recipients remain eligible.

The board looked at the concrete bids for the sidewalk and entrance to the parking lot. On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Morris the board moved to table the concrete bid until next week to provide time for Rich to contact the city regarding sharing the cost and 3D to find out the estimated time frame.

Darin Sunderman updated the board on Environmental Health. Sunderman attended the Shenandoah and Clarinda health fairs along with the Page County Fair. Sunderman has completed 17 perc tests to date and has issued 30 permits since February. Sunderman also provided a list of items he would like to accomplish in the future, including being involved with more educational and community programs. Sunderman is also assisting Taylor County on an as need basis. Angie Hakes updated the board with some figures showing the benefit of Darin's work.

Morris updated the board on the IMWCA meeting he attended last week including OSHA requirements and Workmen Comp policies.

On a motion by Morris, seconded by Armstrong, the board unanimously approved the minutes for October 31, 2017.

With no further business, the Board adjourned at 10:50 a.m. and will meet again Tuesday November 14, 2017.
