January 9, 2018

The Page County Board of Supervisors met in session on this 9th day of January 2018, with Jon Herzberg, Chuck Morris, and Alan Armstrong present. Present from the public were John Van Nostrand, Gary Alger, Heidi Carter, and Kris Grebert.

King gave a roads update. The crew is cutting brush. Truck #45 is in Omaha for work. The International reps are visiting today. Brummett Bridge work is back in order. King stated he sent information regarding a request for information to a citizen. The citizen has stated he did not receive information for 160th Street. He stated his request is over 14 months old.

Gary Alger with Veterans Affairs came and met with the board. The board would like to see the director hired first and then let the director hire the assistant.

Applications will be accepted until the 17th of January. Angie Hakes joined the meeting.

Judy Ridnour met with the board to discuss the wellness policy. Employees for this year will be eligible for $100 which will be taxable. Ridnour would like the board to consider offering a paid 8 hour floating holiday for all employees who participate in the program at a 100% level this year. For any employee that successfully completes all the programs during 2018, they will be eligible for a floating holiday from January 1, 2019 to June 30, 2019.

Elaine Farwell met with the board to give a Clarinda Chamber update. She went over the upcoming projects that are going on.

Mike Galloway joined the meeting. On a motion by Herzberg, seconded by Armstrong, the board moved into exempt session under Chapter 20.17(3). On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Herzberg, the board moved to come out of exempt session. Angie Hakes, Angie Dow, Brenda Esaias, and Sheriff Palmer joined the meeting.

The board discussed the budget for the upcoming year, times, and compensation.

On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Herzberg, the minutes of today, January 9, 2018, were approved.

With no further business, the Board adjourned at 12:00 p.m. and will meet again next Tuesday, January 16th.
