

May 31, 2018

The Page County Board of Supervisors met in session on this 31st day of May 2018, with Alan Armstrong, Jon Herzberg and Chuck Morris present. On a motion by Herzberg, seconded by Armstrong, the board moved to approve the agenda. Present from the public were Kris Grebert, Charly Stevens, Rich Wallace, Kory Kline, Peggy Smith, Jessica Erdman, Lyle Palmer, JD King, Judy Ridnour, Brenda Esaias, Angie Dow, and John Van Nostrand

King gave a roads update. Blades are out in the districts, and they are hauling rock as normal. Re-grading is being done on 150th Street Northwest of Essex. One or two mowers are out as personnel are available. The spray patcher has been running all week. Bump grinding was done over the weekend at different spots throughout the county. Some dust control was done on W Ave last week. Regular work is being done in the shop. Truck #46 is back from Omaha, and Motorgrader #8 is in for service. The second safety walk through was performed this week. Brummett Bridge is coming along slowly. They had to redo the overhang jacks, which caused a delay of a couple days. June is a big month for construction projects with both the Hot Mix Project starting in late June, and the Base Stabilization and Seal Coating on Page Center starting in Mid-June. Rich Wallace and Kory Kline joined the meeting. Pipe work is also being done. King felt the safety meeting went well on Tuesday afternoon, and there is a Hungary Canyon meeting in Adair County on Friday. King stated that Primary Election signs should not be in the right of way. Morris asked about the shoulder on the Stanton Road, as he had received some concerns from the public. King will look into this.

Charley Stevens and Rich Wallace met with the board. They discussed safety issues with the Conservation Department. Safety goggles were discussed, wearing pants, and ear protection. It was discussed to educate and train all employees on safety in the workplace. The board would like to have no employees wear shorts in the workplace.

The department head meeting began. The personnel policy was discussed with department heads. The department heads will meet back June 12 to discuss the personnel policy.

On a motion by Armstrong, seconded by Herzberg the board moved to approve the minutes of May 31, 2018.

With no further business, the Board adjourned at 10:45 am and will meet again Tuesday, June 12, 2018.

Chuck Morris, Chairman
Page County Board of Supervisors

Melissa Wellhausen
Page County Auditor