

Page County Communications Center is currently seeking applications for a full time 911 Dispatcher. This is a challenging and rewarding career opportunity. Applicants must possess excellent oral and written communication skills, computer skills, and the ability to multitask. Applicants must have the ability to stay calm and think independently in various critical situations. At minimum, applicants must possess a high school diploma or GED, pass a thorough background investigation, have no felony convictions, and must be a US citizen. Applicants must speak, write and understand the English language. Upon hire, applicants must be able to attend a 40 hour basic course at the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy and obtain Iowa/NCIC systems certification. This is an hourly wage position and the wage is dependent upon qualifications. The applicant will be required to work various hours, different shifts, weekends and holidays. This position offers an excellent benefit package.

Applications can be found on the Page County website. All applicants are to be turned into the Page County Communications Center by 4:00 PM on Friday June 30, 2017.

Page County Communications is an Equal Opportunity Employer